FRANK JONES'S BODY

Home in Brooklyn Since Early in March.

His Pockets Were Filled with Stones he defies the landlord, hires a furniture van and Undoubtedly He Committed Suicide.

NO REASON FOR ENDING HIS LIFE.

black water. As the light reflected from this sky became stronger he noticed something dark and shadowy just below him. Assuming Office & Repub.

Mr. Knapp refuses to transfer of authority.

When the Mayor of the Ma He rau to the little sentry box and got a boathook. With this he turned over the

was a suicide. He was about thirty years , with a clean shaven face and wore a agie-breasted black overcoat, a black cutaway coat and vest, dark-striped trousers, laced shoes and a black derby. In the Republic pookers were a gold watch, a silver match folded neatly, was found in the They were nearly all addressed to Powell Jones, No. 56 Clark street, yn. The overcoat pockets were full ies, showing the determination of the o and his life. The body had been in ther for more than a month, and was decomposed. having notified Coroner body was removed be the body was removed to the me. There early in the afternoon C. inckerhoff, of No. 180 Willoughby avepositively identified it as that of t P. Jones, whom he had known for y years. He had Undertaker George ich take the remains to his store in aftert, near Washington avenne.

NO CAUSE FOR SPECIME.

wealthy civil engineer, who has an at No. 20 Broadway, New York, and lived with his wife, an invalid, in the I Savoy, at the corner of Fifth avenue Fifty-ninth street, for the past six

Her Mysterious Acts in East New York

Have Caused Excitement

while His Honor will have to wait until an understanding is reached or the courts compel the Treasurer to pay him.

The Fylends of the City Treasurer are quietly giving Mayor Gleason the laugh, aspector Thomas Murphy at the newly created Twenty-third Sub-Precinct Station, not a cheering a series of undersome to New York and Frank went to New York and Hard cries of the manter and the Mayor, and will sue for relative to Mayor, and will sue for relative to the Mayor, and will sue for relative the All the All the All the Mayor and the City Treasure will prevent the action of the Mayor and the City Treasure will prevent shocked yesterday at the

Will Apply for a Franchise.

Thousands of Residents Change Their MAYOR GLEASON'S Places of Abode-Many New Yorkers

Cross the Bridge.

Every 1st of May there is a general shake-Had Been Missing from His up in Brooklyn and people change their quarters. The average Brooklynite is a patient man. The roof may leak, rent be raised, Wintry blasts sweep through broken window panes, doors rattle or stairs become rickety, but he will tamely submit until he defies the landlord, hires a furniture van and moves his goods and chattels. He will move if it is only to the next block.

The thue-honored custom of moving on May 1 was observed yesterday, and thousands of families changed their places of abode. One warchouse company had calls from 107 families, and this concern did not do 1 per cent of the moving.

Ilcan Appointed.

He started back in horror as a white ed to succeed Justice Laimbeer in the Ewen that it was the first of the month. When face appeared, ghastly and horrible in the Street Police Court, Williamsburg, yester- he was Mayor before he learned to look gra yof the morning. A few minutes later day entered upon his official duties, and his a pay upon the first day of the month as pay telephone message was sent to the Butler first act was the dismissal of Clerk Mor-Street Police Station. A patrol wagon timer C. Earl. Justice Lemon appointed in during the past few months he has also hurried down to the canal, the corpse was his place George E. England, of the Twen.

Justice Walsh Holds That the Corporations Alone Are Responsible for trolley car at an eighteen-mile rate of speed, was discharged by Justice Walsh in the Adams Street Court, Brooklyn, yesterday. The Justice said there was no law to punish motormen who violated the speed ordinance.

Speed Violations.

The Magistrate consulted the ordinance and said it applied only to troller and said it applied only to

Have Caused Excitement.

Michael Wagner, who lives at Liberty and in Habeman's tin factory, and the two were Atlantic avenues, Brooklyn, is the owner of sweehearts until two months ago, when tacked by the two dogs, who pulled him off Atlantic avenues, Brooklyn, is the owner of avere greatly shocked yesterday at the season in the property at No. 188 Wyckoff avenue, a weekearts until two months ago, when they of his death. It follows the property at No. 188 Wyckoff avenue in the property at No. 188 Wyckoff avenue, a few points of the property at No. 188 Wyckoff avenue, a few points of his death. It follows a few points of the property at No. 188 Wyckoff avenue, a few points of the property at No. 188 Wyckoff avenue, a few points of his death. It follows a few points of the property at No. 188 Wyckoff avenue, a few points of his death. It follows a few points of the property at No. 188 Wyckoff avenue, a few points of his death. It follows a few points of the property at No. 188 Wyckoff avenue, a few points of his death. It follows a few points of the property at No. 188 Wyckoff avenue, a few points of his death. It follows a few points of the property at No. 188 Wyckoff avenue, a few points of his death. It follows a few points of his points. The dose bit in on the few points of his father that the event of his father that the sale. It follows a few points of his father that the points of his father that the points of his points. The dose bit in on the few points. The dose beat in the life. On the eventuge of April 20 he was a few points. The dose beat in the fill on the sale of the sale on the sale of the beat and the few points. The dose beat in the fill on the few points. The dose beat in the fill on the sale of the sale on the few points.

The Brooklyn, Queens County & Suburban Railroad did not default in the payment of May interest on its $2,500,000 of consolidated 5 per cent bonds. The directors met yesterday morning and arranged for the securing of the $02,500 needed to pay the interest.

It is said that the money was advanced by the Brooklyn, Queens County & Suburban Rand.

The bondholders were annoyed a few ye ago when they heard that the money day the interest.

The bondholders were annoyed a few ye ago when they heard that the money was advanced to be ago when they heard that the money was advanced by the Brooklyn, Queens County & Suburban Rand.

The bondholders were annoyed a few ye ago when they heard that the money was advanced to be ago when they heard that the securing of the $100 km and $100 km and Expression Road.

The bondholders were annoyed a few lays ago when they heard that the company might default in the payment of the apointment of a receiver and the foreclosure of the morigage, which would bring about the cancellation of the lease of the lines.

The bleycle was discovered yesterday on the estate of E. Balley, Jr., where Norman is employed. Norman denied stealing the wheel, saying he bought it for $2.

Highwaymen Still at Large. Riverhead, L. I., May 1.-Sheriff John Patchogue, L. I., May 1.—It has been de-ded by the officials of the Patchogue and O'Brien, of Suffolk County, has offered a re-

SALARY HELD BACK.

to Honor His Warrant for $208.33.

Mayor Previously Signs a Paper by Which Knapp Can Draw His Pay.

DISAGREE OVER OTHER EMPLOYES.

Wealthy Father and Several Friends Had Searched for Him in Vain—Was Unmarried and Had Plenty of Money.

Frank Powell Jones, for whom since early in March a wealthy father and several friends have been searching vainly, was found yesterday morning just as the day was breaking. Roating on the sluggish in the Gowanus Canni. The policanian who guards the bridge at Third street, Brooklyn, had been leaning over the rail looking down at the CLERK EARL REMONANTS.

There was a constant procession of vans and truels across the bridge. They came from uprown and down, and they carried loads of furniture to all parts of Brooklyn. The larger portion seemed to go in the direction of the Hill and South Brooklyn. There were a number of changes in the Flatbush section. Bensonhurst and Bath Beach, and West Brooklyn had a number of a families moved into the Twenty-fifth Ward and the upper section of the Twenty-fifth Ward. There was very little moving in the First Ward or in any of the downtown wards. The march seemed to be out toward the wards where new houses are in the majority.

CLERK EARL REMONANTS ing over the rall looking down at the CLERK EARL REMOVED. desires to run the Treasurer's office, and Mr. Knapp refuses to stand for any such

When the Mayor, after kissing the baby good by, and getting through shaking hands with the army who greet him every Justice Andrew Lemon, who was appoint- day at his office, yesterday remembered taken from the water and carried to the station house.

THE BODY IDENTIFIED.

At first the police suspected foul play, but it soon became evident that the man was a suicide. He was about thirty years

The station house, a landsome lyory gavel, mounted in gold, a gift from his professional friends of New York and Brookityn, and a lounging chair.

Many political friends were present to shake his hand.

Civil justice, Van Wart, of the Broadway. His Honor made out the warant for Treasurer Knapp and quietly anbox and 870 in bills. A bundle of private CAN'T PUNISH MOTORMEN. nounced that he would hold the warrants for the salaries of the employes in obey-

> When the result was made known to Deputy Telssel he refused to honor the Mayor's warrant, stating he would hold it Motorman Joseph Laskow, who was ar- in obeyance to await the signing of the frich take the remains to his store in ton street, near Washington avenue.

NO CAUSE FOR SUICIDE.

The Magistrate consulted the ordinance that he had been "turned down," howards and said it applied only to troiley corporations. Hereafter officials of the companies, not their employes, will be made the defendants in similar cases.

The Magistrate consulted the speed that he would have his saiary. The fact that he had been "turned down," however, seemed to worry him a great deal, as Treasurer Knapp had his warrant signed by the Mayor and could draw his salary, weight civil currings who has a second control of the companies.

quietly giving Mayor Gleason the laugh, Have Caused Excitement

Have Caused Excitement

The residents of the Twenty-sixth Ward of Brooklyn, formerly known as East New York, are in a flutter of excitement over the choice and was able to earn a of money. His income was augant allowance from his parents, ones was a steady, industrious his friends say he had no bad

Have Caused Excitement

The residents of the Twenty-sixth Ward of Brooklyn, formerly known as East New York, are in a flutter of excitement over the appearance in their streets of a tall woman, who goes about like some grim spectre, after nightfall.

Ye for three days past the woman, enveloped in a black shawl and imponentable oned in a black shawl and imponentable.

Wore trouble was added to this vester. Church, and no salary, all within a few power, Brinckerhoff said yesterday that there was no reason why he should have committed suicide. He was socially a favorite, he had there was unmarried.

The Brinckerhoff was morthly he could wish for and there was unmarried.

The Brinckerhoff was unmarried.

The Brinck

Fifty Years a Lumber Merchant.

The body of Henry Offerman, the merchant and philanthropist, was buried yesterday in Greenwood Cemetery. The funeral services, conducted in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn.

PRESENTS FOR ALL PATRONS.

B. M. Cowperthwait & Co. to Celemeters and many friends. Dr. Loch said the dead man had led a life which was conspleuous for usefulness, integrity, industry and the doing of good.

She was struck by the doctor. The case will keeped street by United States Commissioner Benedict, in Brooklyn, yesterday. He was under arrest for an alleged assault on two members of the crew, was held for the grand Jury by Judge Nell, on complaint of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

B. M. Cowperthwait & Co., of Chatham by the doctor. The case will be tried in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn.

PRESENTS FOR ALL PATRONS.

B. M. Cowperthwait & Co. to Celemeters and many friends. Dr. Loch said the dead man had led a life which was conspleuous for usefulness, integrity, industry and the doing of good.

B. M. Cowperthwait & Co., of Chatham square, who are moving into their new stores, will celebrate the event this morn.

B. M. Cowperthwait & Co., of Chatham square, who are moving into their new stores, will celebrate the event this morn.

B. M. Cowperthwait & Co., of Chatham square, who are moving into their new stores, will celebrate the event this morn.

B. M. Cowperthwait & Co., of Chatham square, who are moving into their new stores, will celebrate the event this morn.

B. M. Cowperthwait & Co., of Chatham square, who are moving into their new stores, will celebrate the event this morn.

B. M. Cowperthwait & Co., of Chatham square, who are moving into their new stores, will celebrate the event this morn.

B. M. Cowperthwait & Co. to Celemeters.

B. M. Cowperthwait & Co., of Chatham square, who are moving into their new stores, will celebrate the event this morn.

B. M. Cowperthwait & Co., of Chatham square, who are moving into their new stores for an all leged assault on two members of the cruely beating. The was arrested th

Mrs. Harrigan Fell from a Third-Story Window and Was Discovered by a Policeman.

The cries of a woman attracted the attention of Roundsman O'Brien, of the Columbia streets, Brooklyn, early yesterday morning. He found a woman lying on the sidewalk in front of No. 81 Columbia street, She was robed only in her nightdress, and she was robed only in her mighturess, and in reply to a question from the officer, said she lived on the third floor of the address given and had accidentally fallen out of the window. She had sprained her arm by first landing on the cornice of the saloon on the corner in her fall. Otherwise she escaped injury, except for a few brulses about the body.

caped injury, except for a few brulses about the body.

An ambulance was called from the Long Island College Hospital, and Dr. Duffy responded. By the time he arrived the woman had become bysterical. He recognized the patient as Mrs. Catherine Harrigan, a chronic sufferer, whom he had been called to take to the hospital several times before. The woman is about thirty-eight years old. Dr. Duffy conveyed her to the hospital, and subsequently she was transferred to St. Peter's Hospital. When she reached there she described herself as Miss Catherine Cody.

About three-quarters of an hour later she looked surprised when addressed as Miss Cody, and said: "Why, I am Mrs. Harrigan. It is believed she is slightly demented. It is said she has been married several times, and because of some trouble with her present husband she has been despondent of late.

Two Verdicts, Amounting to $31,000, Against the Heights Trolley for Crippling a Girl.

Shouters.

the Republican end of Illinois, he mad haste in placing himself on record. He GLOOM AT CONEY ISLAND. has all along been regarded as a Harrison man, with anybody who can win as second choice.

Use Reno's Endless Stairway if It Is Practical.

The managers of the Kings County Elevated Railroad have been considering the feasibility of placing elevators on their rincipal stations. General James Jourdan.

NEW POLICE SUB-STATION.

he head was betnering this and he was been alive.

That was the last me he was seen alive.

The news of his disappearance was sent hive.

WHAT THE CONSTABLE FOUND, in the Lee Avenue Police Court, charged John Dunning, of No. 2130 Second avenue, New York, with assault.

Saloon Keeper Froelich Left Three Lithomete friend, gave all his sparre line to its prosecution. In order to avoid graphs of Senator Wieman.

Driggs avenue, William F. Walton to-day. Meduire was riding a bicycle on which he was making Dunning, of No. 2130 Second avenue, New York, with assault.

Miss Corcoran is a forewoman employed in Habeman's fin factory, and the two were Near the railroad crossing he was attached the missing man and the was sent formulation.

The constant of the missing man be a fine with the constant of the missing man and the was sent formulation.

The constant of the missing man are the missing man and the was sent formulation.

The constant of the missing man are the missing man and the was sent formulation.

The constant of the missing man are the missing man and the was sent formulation.

The constant of the missing man are the missing man and the was sent formulation.

The constant of the missing man are the missing man and the was sent formulation.

The constant of the missing man are the miss Katle Corcoran, who lives at No. 536 tacked by two large hounds belonging to Driggs avenue, Williamsburg, yesterday, in William F. Walton to-day. McGuire was Dunning, of No. 2130 Second avenue, New the rounds of the different stations along Philadelphia, has decided to accept the call the home of her parents in a critical condition, suffering from burns received while playing about a bonfre on Thursday evening. The girl was watching the fire with some companions when she tripped over a plece of wood and fell backward into the blaze. Her clothing was on fire when she was rescued.

Fifty Years a Lumber Merchant,

E. L. Hardy, the senior partner of the firm of Hardy, Voorhees & Co., iumber merchants at Metropolitan avenue and Newtown Creek, Williamsburg, yesterday celebrated his fiftleth anniversary as a lumberman. A delegation from the New York Trade Association called during the day to express their congratulations. Mr. Hardy was born in Fulton County, N. Y., eighty-six years ago.

Funeral of Henry Offerman.

The body of Henry Offerman, the merchant and philanthropist, was burled yestericd in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn.

Figure 1 of Henry Offerman, the merchant and philanthropist, was burled yestericd in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn.

Figure 2 of Henry Offerman, the merchant and philanthropist, was burled yestericd in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn.

Figure 2 of Henry Offerman, the merchant and philanthropist, was burled yestericd in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn.

Figure 2 of Henry Offerman, the merchant and philanthropist, was burled yestericd in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn.

Figure 3 of Henry Offerman, the merchant and philanthropist, was burled yesterically in Greenwood Company to Company to stores, will celebrate the event this morning by giving away valuable packages to their customers, commencing at 8 o'clock.

This is one of the o'dest firms in the city, having been in business over half a central commencing at 8 o'clock. Sestending the celebrated the eighty-second anniversary of his birth.

Within wise went to bloodly in 1816, who was killed while experimenting who when it was a village. When it had the dight chemicals in his kitchen at No. 7 Oak street, by the commencing at 8 o'clock, at Christ Church, on Arlington and Claremont avenues. Patchague, L. L. May 1.—It has been add by the officials of the Patchague and Fort Jefferson Trolley Company to apply to the Street Rallroad Commissioners for a franchise to conduct a trolley road between Port Jefferson and Patchague. The officials of the road have met with some opposition on the part of certain residents of client with some opposition on the part of certain residents of them a franchise it will not be necessary for the road to get a franchise from the officials of the town of Brockhaven.

Volunteer Firemen's Monument.

The monument which has been erected by the olunteer Firemen's Association of May 6. The sentiment in this county is for Cleveland first, with Whitney as seen will be anveiled May If by Mayor Wurster.

District a popointed.

Library Trustees Appointed.

Newark, N. J., May 1.—Mayor Lebknecher this afternoon appointed Edward H. Duryee and Richard C. Jenkinson trustees of the wints afternoon appointed Edward H. Duryee and Richard C. Jenkinson trustees of the free Bugledor, in the office of Justice Stack, policy and Richard C. Jenkinson trustees of the many several suspects were brought before free public Library. Mr. Duryee is appointed for a five-years term to succeed himself them. Borgledor has given a pretty good them a franchise it will not be necessary for the road to get a franchise from the officials of the town of Brockhaven.

Volunteer Firemen's Monument.

The monument which has been erected by the olunteer Firemen's Association of May 6. The sentiment in this county is for Cleveland first, with Whitney as seen will be anvelled May If by Mayor Wurster.

Volunteer Firemen's Association of May 6. The sentiment in this county is for Cleveland first, with Whitney as seen was of the older from the city, Indianally as of the man was opposited Edward H. Duryee is appointed.

Library Trustees Appointed.

Newark, N. J., May 1.—Mayor Lebknecher the street of Lynkinson trustees of the first afternoon appointed Edward H. Duryee is appointed.

This is fermion and the authorized street o

Amity Street Station House, to Warren and Colonel Michell and His Staff Active on the First Day Under the New Law.

> Business of the Day Amounts to $229,000, Which Brings the Total Up to $435,000,

800 PLACES WILL PROBABLY CLOSE

Out of 1,700 Saloon Keepers Over 1,400 Have Applied for Renewals of License. Retired Commissioners to Dine Mayor Wurster. The Brooklyn Excise office, as a branch of the State Government, began business in the Germania Bank building, yesterday. Colonel Henry W. Michell, the Deputy State Commissioner, and his staff, got down to work at 8 o'clock, and it was the busiest day of their lives. A line of saloon keepers filed through the office from the morning hour until night.

The business of the day amounted to $229,-000. This, together with the money sent in with the applications on Thursday, brings sloner Welles and others, by James Gascoine and Joseph Hacker. Messrs. Hacker and Gascoine were appointed Excise Commissioners by Mayor Wurster. They had but three months of official life. The men who laughed wondered why they were dining the Mayor—whether it was for giving

County Treasurer Joseph Dykes, of Queens County Treasurer Joseph Dykes, of Queens ake his hand.

Olvil Justice Van Wart, of the Broadway the Treasuret's office, Deputy City Treasuret, yesterday removed William W. college sent a clerk to the inted William H. Doolittle. Mr. Richards, the first assistant clerk, and apointed William H. Doolittle. Mr. Richards of the employes in the Treasurer's of the employes in the Treasurer's of the employes in the Treasurer's office of the warnts for the salaries of the employes in the Treasurer's office of the warnts for the salaries of the employes in the Treasurer's office of the warnts for the salaries of the employes in the Treasurer's office of the warnts for the salaries of the employes in the Treasurer's office of the warnts for the salaries of the employes in the Treasurer's office of the warnts for the salaries of the employes in the Treasurer's office of the warnts for the salaries of the employes in the Treasurer's office of the warnts for the salaries of the employes in the Treasurer's office of the warnts for the salaries of the employes in the Treasurer's office of the warnts for the salaries of the employes in the Treasurer's office of the warnts for the salaries of the employes in the Treasurer's office of the warnts for the salaries of the employes in the Treasurer's office of the warnts for the salaries of the employes in the Treasurer's office of the warnts for the salaries of the employes in the Treasurer's office of the warnts for the salaries of the employes in the Treasurer's office of the warnts for the company. them positions that were not to last, or for When City Works Commissioner Willis his good intentions when he selected them. read the Journal yesterday morning and learned that Major McKinley had captured their appointments were "gold bricks."

> Thirty-five Saloon Keepers Forced Out of Business by the Raines Law.

Gloom came with the annual moving day on Coney Island yesterday and many barsh mutterings were heard against Senator Kings County Elevated Road Wants to Raines and his Liquor Tax law by the thirty-five saloon keepers who, through lack of $650 or proper accommodations for a hotel, have been forced out of the liquor

As John Stack, of the Abbey saloon, remarked, while he draped his bar with crape, "I have been in the business for twenty the president, said yesterday that if the Reno elevator, which is to be tried at the bridge, proves a success his company will adopt it for use.

The Brooklyn Elevated Road managers have for some time been thinking of using elevators with electricity as a motive power.

No lower will the means and frankfurters is terrible. I fear the blow will kill me. If I tried to serve a glass of milk or sarsaparilla the thoughts of good old days in Coney Island would make me weep bitter tears."

No longer will the merry corks pop in uch resorts on the Bowery as the "Snug," "Half-way House," the "Unique," the "Little Sport," "House at Home," "Delmoni-cd," "Little Glisey," "Renwick," "Anchor," "Dutchie's Nest," "Pelican" and a score or more places, where, until the Raines law or more places, where, that the Raines law became operative yesterday, the sounds of music and revelry were heard from early dawn into the witching hours of night. In the majority of cases those who cannot sell liquor either own their buildings or have paid their first instalment of rent, which is generally the principal part of the sum total. They will make the best of their positions and dispense roast beef sandwiches and the brown and rubbery frankfurters, with such mild accompaniments as sarsaparilla, soda, milk and the like.

indurged in in conjunction with temperance beverages.

Even the famous "Red Lght," where the late "Red" Leary, the bank burglar, carried on business during his lifetime, and which is now known as the "Little Glissy," cannot traffic in liquor. Kate Leary occupies the old house for a private residence.

NEW RECTOR FOR CALVARY.

Been Called to the Charge. from Calvary Church, this city; and has tendered his resignation to the vestry of bate in the Queens County Surrogate's offace to-day. Foley gives eight acres of land to St. Monica's Roman Catholic Church, in Springfield, and to St. Augustine's Church, of Philadelphia, the deceased left a plot of ground on Albert street, Philadelphia. The rest of his property he gave to his sisters.

with the county of accounts on that evening. Yesterday Marks was placed under arrest, charged with stealing 14i of the thing was a conspiracy to defraud the Standard Clothing Company.

Marks was held in $1,500 bail by Magistrate Crane to await examination.

Mayhew Wants a New Trial.

Captain French on Duty Again.

After an illness lasting over five months
Captain Henry French, of the Graft Street Police Station, in Brooklyn, resumed duty yesterday. He intends to retire in July, when he will have served twenty years.

"Angel" Dennett Acquitted.

Cure all liver ills, billousness, headache, son

SIMIS AS PLAINTIFF.

and It Doesn't Matter Which Gets It.

Adolph Simis is Charities Commissioner Interest of Andrew Wissel and Edmund with picking S. J. Donnelly's pocket.

vear. Simis, on the stand yesterday, said he and prepared a bid for Wissel and a bid for Vilson. There were two other bidders, 'Connor and White. 'Connor and White. 'Wasn't White another name for O'Contr?' the defendants' lawyer asked. The Young the defendants' lawyer asked. lon't know,' said Simis. He added the had used his influence to get the

that he had used his influence to get the contract for his clients.

"Where was the agreement made?"

"In Mr. Wessel's office. If either got the contract I was to be paid $1,000 a year, instead of $800, which I had been receiving during te life of the previous contract. If Wissel didn't get it Wilson might. They were both in it together."

The trial will be continued to-day.

MANY RAINES HOTELS. for his day's work, at Kent avenue and County Treasurer Joseph Dykes, of cheense County, has been overrun with applications for licenses. Many of the licenses expired at midnight last night, while others hold good until July 1. All the saloon keepers who pald the license and received fees, but did not get their certificates, will be allowed to do business on showing the receipt of the County Treasurer. It will be several days before they get their certificates.

QUIDE BILLIONS OF CAPITAL nsurance Actuaries Hold Instructive Sessions at the Imperial.

The final session of the seventh annual onvention of the Actuaries' Society of America was held at the Hotel Imperial esterday morning, and when the adjournnent took place at 1 o'clock the members ongratulated each other upon having held he most interesting and successful of all priventions in the history of the organiza-

Oh.

These actuaries of life insurance comanies are most expert mathematicians, hey are able to figure out how long the verage human being exists, how much an six feet high should weigh to enjoy erfect health, and just exactly how much isk there is in insuring a man who is lither too fat or too lean to correspond ith an established table of proportionate verages. rages.
hey also are held responsible for an acnting system, which must be so perfect t transactions aggregating hundreds of lions of dollars in volume can be carried without possibility of error. No less n six billions of dollars has been inted on the calculations of the insurance

The society yesterday adopted an amendment to its constitution that will make it necessary for future applicants for membership to pass a stringent examination.

The morning session was devoted to the reading and discussion of papers, technical n character.

PASSENGERS HAVE RIGHTS. Fort Lee Steamboat Company May Have to Pay $2,000.

ease of Maria Miller against the Fort Lee Park and Steamboat Company. On the 28th day of June, 1891, Mrs. Miller took a 28th day of June, 1891, Mrs. Miller took a trip to Fort Lee on the steambaat Pleasant Valley. On her return the steamer stopped at the foot of Thirty-fourth street at night and a small gangplank was used for the purpose of enabling passengers to alight. There were no lights there and the gangplank had no rails.

Because of the failure to have lights and a proper gangplank Mrs. Miller fell into the river, and was rescued after considerable difficulty. She retained Messrs. Alfred and Charles Steckler, who brought suit against the company for damages, and the case was reached in March, 1893, before Judge Beach and a jury, and a verdict was rendered in her favor for $2,000. From this verdict the company for the Supreme Court, General Term, and the judgment was affirmed.

They appealed to the Court of Appeals, and the case was yesterday submitted. The Court reserved its decision.

DID HE STEAL HIS OWN COATS? Detectives Say Marks Tried to Defraud the Standard Clothing Company. Moses Marks, proprietor of a tailor shop at No. 72 Lewis street, caused the arrest last Tuesday night of his watchman, Mendel Balsam, on a charge of being connected with the robbery of 196 coats on that even-

Electric Plant Resolution Vetoed. Newark, N. J., May 1.-At the final meet-

"Angel" Dennett Acquitted.

Magistrate Cornell dismissed the assault case of David P. Saltzman against "Angel" Dennett, superintendent of the Parkhurst Society, in the Yorkville Court yesterday afternoon, deciaring that it was not worthy the attention of the court.

"Angel" Dennett Acquitted.

"angel" Dennett Acquitted.

"case of David P. Saltzman against "Angel" tion. They act easily with out pain or gripe. Sold by all druggists.

25c. The only Pills to take with Hood's Garsenardia.

DETECTIVE KNEW DORAN.

Wissel and Wilson Bid for a City Contract Man Whom McCarthy Tried to Save from Prison Held for the Grand Jury.

William Dovan, whom Charles McCarthy of Kings County. Yesterday he appeared in the Supreme Court in Brooklyn as plain- Grand Jury in Brooklyn by Judge Walsh tiff in an odd suit. He asked a Jury to yesterday. Dovan, McCarthy and Edward award him $5,000 for working hard in the Johnson were arrested Monday charged

Interest of Andrew Wissel and Edmund Wilson when they were seeking the contract for removing the city's offals. He said that from 1887 to 1892 he was paid $800 a year by Wissel for services as a lawyer in relation to the offal contract. In December, 1801, the city asked for bids for the contract, which was to live until 1806. Simis says the two defendants employed him to procure the contract, agreeing to pay him $1.000 a year if either was nawarded the econtract. Wissel got the contract on his bid of $5.000 a year, and Wilson became interested with him. He had also made a bid. Simis says he only received $700.

The defendants chaim they paid Simis the $700 and that he borrowed $500, which he never paid back. They deny that they made any agreement to pay him $1,000 a year, and Wilson the street Court yesterday. Dovan renewed his plead in the himself alone was guilty. The trio were arraigned in the Adams Street Court yesterday. Dovan renewed his plea of Innocence, Detective Foy, of New York, walked up to the prisoner and looked at him. Dovan turned pale and tried in vain to say something. Foy said he recognized the trio as men who attempted to pick pockets at Sulzer's Loomerce, helped him to get. Mr. Orr $700 and that he borrowed $500, which he never paid back. They deny that they man.

Dovan lass are arrested monday charged with picking $2. J. Donnelly's pocket.

Mrs. Jennie Mammeu, attractive and only nineteen years old, who lives at No. 834 Leonard street, Williamsburg, yesterday ng called at the Ewen Street Police Court and appealed to Justice Leman, the new Justice, to assist her in finding her missing husband. Mammeu has been missing for Railroad Company. He had sued for the loss of the services of his eight-year-old daughter, Clare. Two weeks ago the child, through her father, secured a verdict for $27,500 against the company for the loss of her left leg, which was out off by a Putnam avenue trolley car. The two verdicts amount to $31,000.

There are 400 trolley suits pending against the company.

WILLIS SQUARES HIMSELF.

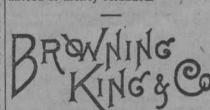

Railroad Company. He had sued for the loss of the services of his eight-year-old daughter, Clare. Two weeks ago the child, through her father, secured a verdict for $27,500 against the company for the loss of her left leg, which was out off by a Putnam avenue trolley car. The two verdicts amount to $31,000.

There are 400 trolley suits pending against the company.

WILLIS SQUARES HIMSELF. week, and when he left his home he started

Time is often lost in making too great haste. Don't hurry. Visit other Clothing Stores. Examine their styles and prices then come here. By that time you will have found what you don't want for a Spring Suit or Overcoat and be ready to see what you do want. As everything is made in our own factory under the supervision of the most skilful artists, we claim that you will find nowhere else in Brooklyn so complete and so attractive a display of fine seasonable clothing for men and boys as we offer this season. Entire satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

CALEB V. SMITH, Dancing or singing will have little or no harm to the young people of both sexes if dulged in in conjunction with temperance at Albany yesterday. It is the Appeals at Albany yesterday. BROOKLYN.

Broadway, Bedford Ave. and South 8th St

BROOKLYN. A CONSTANT STREAM of customers is the best indication that low prices are popular. It is an acknowledged fact by all who know us that our prices are phenomenal. For instance, we are selling -Genuine 4-4 Lonsdale Bleached Muslin, Fine French Dimity Lawns, fast colors, Goods, value 19c. yard, at 121/20 44-inch All-Wool Serge, popular shades, tenants in the market told the mayor that they preferred to use gus, as the electric lights could not be relied upon.

Arrested for Beating a Horse.

Elizabeth, N. J., May 1.—Max Ferne, a wear-resisting materials.

pants, from size 6.00 18.00 Specialty

U. S. CADET AND UNIFORM SUITS. Open Evenings.

CLOTHIERS

661 & 663 BROADWAY, BROOKLYN